Staff Expectations for Virtual Days Nov. 23 – 25, 2020

Principals were sent a notice to share with staff concerning what the teaching and work expectations for these days. Principals must share site plans with district level administration by Wednesday, November 18, 2020.

Buildings will be closed.

Teachers are directed not to introduce new work on these days. Classes will not meet.

Teachers must provide students with work to be completed.

Teachers must participate in a 1 (one) hour PLC on 1 (one) of the 3 (three) days.

Teacher Weekly Work Day Update

Parental input is due on Wednesday, Nov. 11, 2020. At this time, 69% of parents are in favor of conducting classes four days a week with a fifth day for teachers to work on grading, lesson plans, Schoology, etc.

Due to the Thanksgiving Holiday, followed by two weeks of instruction before High School Semester Exam Week, this would be implemented after the Winter Break. This will give parents an opportunity to work out child care issues.

At this time, the scheduled Weekly Work Day will be on Wednesday.
