Kate and Kat were good at solving problems.

Their class had a problem. Who would feed the class fish during school breaks?
The teacher had a problem. Too many kids wanted to help feed Fred!

Nicole wanted to help. “I’ll feed Fred,” said Nicole.

Billy wanted to help. “I’ll feed Fred,” said Billy.
Melissa wanted to help.
“I’ll feed Fred,” said Melissa.

Kate and Kat had an idea.
Their idea could solve the problem.
“Each of you can take a turn,” Kat said.

“That’s a great idea!” said the class.

“Fred will have a new home each break,” Kate said.
